COMMENTS ON STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

To the extent that the statement of reasons of allowance uses language not identically appearing in the claims, Applicants note that none of the allowed claims are limited by such language, and that the actual language of each claim speaks for itself.

Applicants note that each of the allowed claims of the application sets forth an independently patentable invention. Thus, in addition to the reasons presented, each of the dependent claims recites patentably distinct, novel and non-obvious subject matter and is therefore separately allowable for additional reasons over those given for the independent claims.
